

KILLED BY BURGLARS

Popular Detroit Patrolman Had Located Desperadoes, Who Shot Him and Escaped.

SECOND OFFICER MAY DIE

One White and One Black—After Shooting Down Two Pursuers and Intimidating a Crowd, They Get Away.

Detroit, Nov. 18.—Patrolmen John Dalley was shot down and murdered in cold blood about midnight by one of two burglars whom he detected at work in the rear of William Diedrich's store at No. 75 Michigan avenue, and Herbert H. Pickell, special officer for the Michigan Central railroad, was shot through the abdomen and probably fatally injured when he ran to the policeman's assistance.

The murder occurred in the heart of the business district of Detroit, in an alley back of the corner of Michigan avenue and Wayne street.

Patrolman Dalley's revolver was found within a few feet of the store window which the burglars had partially opened. He had evidently turned to follow his assailants after he had received a mortal wound through the chest as he fell on his face a few yards off in the direction which his assailants had taken.

The patrolmen's cry for help and the noise of the shooting awoke the neighborhood and the desperadoes pursued by a constantly increasing crowd darted westward. Officer Pickell was a leader in the chase, having been within a block of the scene when he heard the shot that killed Patrolman Dalley. Pickell had followed the murderers nearly four blocks when they stopped and shot him through the abdomen, the bullet coming out near the back bone. After firing several more shots and effectively intimidating the pursuing crowd, the fugitives escaped in the direction of the railroad yards. Patrolman Dalley was one of the most popular and efficient officers on the force. It is supposed that the purpose of the burglars was to work from Diedrich's store, at which they were caught, into a jewelry store located next door. All descriptions agree that one of the men was white and the other a negro. One colored man has been arrested on suspicion.

Tired of Soldiering.

Rome, Nov. 18.—In several cities, especially Milan, Turin, Bologna, Como and Spezia, reservists called to arms after the general strike recently instigated by the socialists have tried to arrange a demonstration with the object of procuring their discharge.

Only few men answered the appeal and the demonstration was easily put down by the authorities. Some arrests were made.

Big Cargo of Spruce.

Seattle Nov. 18.—One of the largest cargoes of spruce lumber ever shipped from a Puget sound port, 290,000 feet, will be taken to San Pedro, the seaport of Los Angeles, Cal., on the Emma Claudina, chartered by L. H. Gray & Co. to the Kerry Mill company, of this city. The lumber is consigned to a Los Angeles firm, and it is expected that the work of loading will be completed Thursday.

Masked Men Rob Gamblers.

Cheyenne, Wyo., Nov. 18.—Two masked bandits entered Charles Edwards' saloon and gambling house in Thermopolis early today, lined all the dealers and players against the wall and secured all the money and valuables in the place. It is thought the robbers are the men who attempted to rob the bank at Cody two weeks ago and killed Cashier L. O. Middaugh.

Knocked Senseless by a Light.

Tacoma, Nov. 18.—John Jones, a prominent grocer, attempted to turn on the electric light in his bathroom last night, but received a shock in so doing that knocked him senseless. As he fell his head struck the bath tub, making a bad scalp wound. Members of the family heard him fall and came to his assistance.

Will Pay Wheelbarrow Bet.

Everett, Nov. 18.—As the result of an election bet, Capt. Clarke, of the Wetmore street fire hall, is to be wheeled across town next Tuesday afternoon in a wheelbarrow by one of his firemen. Lew Ketchum. The latter bet that Parker would be elected.

DIED THROUGH NEGLECT.

Christian Science Alleged to Have Caused Death of Haskell Child.

Seattle, Nov. 18.—Christian Science "treatment" is alleged to have been the cause of the death of little Myrtle Lucille Haskell, the 1-year-old daughter of A. E. Haskell, of Lakewood. The child had diphtheria and was attended, according to Acting Coroner Wiltale, by a Mrs. Richbeck, a Christian science "doctor." A little child of the Baker family living across the street from the Haskells, is also dead of the disease, caught, it is thought, from the Haskell child. Last night a post-mortem examination of the Haskell child's body was held by Dr. Wiltale, who has arrived at the conclusion that the infant met its death through neglect. There may be arrests in the case after Dr. Wiltale and Prosecuting Attorney Scott confer today. The coroner made an effort to reach Mr. Scott yesterday but failed, and the assistants in the prosecutor's office would not take up with the case.

Two other Haskell children had the diphtheria but attended school, it is alleged, before they were well cured. It is the fear now that the infection may have spread. The body of the child who died is now at the morgue.

High Tide in Everett.

Everett, Nov. 18.—One of the highest tides ever seen in Everett was the result today of the strong gale that has been blowing. Most of the lowlands around the docks and mills was flooded at high water.

Kaiser Chosen as Arbitrator.

Guayaquil, Nov. 18.—The Ecuadorian minister to Colombia, General Julio Andrade, has signed at Bogota a treaty submitting the Ecuador-Colombia boundary dispute to the arbitration of Emperor William of Germany.

Pleaded Guilty to Burglary.

Tacoma, Nov. 18.—John Thomas and James Williams, who are accused of entering five houses in Puyallup and vicinity one day last week and taking valuables, pleaded guilty today and were sentenced to three years each in the state penitentiary.

STUB ENDS OF THOUGHT.

By Arthur G. Lewis, in the Book of the Royal Blue (B. & O. R. R.)

A surface disregard of sentiment often only indicates a lack of sincerity.

The scorn of many is frequently outweighed by the admiration of a few.

Some men incapable of entering the field of creative art, attempt to break down in their ignorance, structures that they lack sufficient brains to conceive.

Usually an apology is inferior to a fault, especially if the former is expressed under pressure and the latter premeditated.

One of the most difficult obstacles to overcome in business and social intercourse is the man who is ignorant of his ignorance.

More anger is created in the minds of fools by the success of others than sympathy for misfortune in the hearts of men.

The ideas of others are most intelligently served in their original packages, and from a primary source.

Some men are as susceptible to kindness and consideration as a child, yet too often such dispositions are most frequently misunderstood.

Where shall we draw the line between forgetfulness and neglect? Criminal carelessness and dishonesty are too close together to equitably separate.

Home life and the love that binds us to that shrine, away the greatest general influence in the world.

Many people who are first to say of a dead friend, "He was a good fellow," were the last to find a worthy feature in the living character.

The absolute negative of common sense is represented by willful and self-obstructed ignorance.

Small men in large positions curb the views of others with their own.

Friendship whispers in confidence many things that justice asserts should be openly demonstrated.

How much common weal is sacrificed upon the altar of selfish individualism.

It is always necessary to sacrifice something to honesty and better to surrender our opinion than self respect.

A great injustice is often done ability by its confinement to a condition which affords no scope for development.

Cured After Physicians Said He Had Consumption.

E. H. Jones, Pastor M. E. Church, Grove, Md., writes: "About seven or eight years ago I had a very severe cold which physicians said was very near pneumonia, and which they afterwards pronounced consumption. Through a friend I was induced to try a sample of Foley's Honey and Tar, which gave me so much relief that I bought some of the regular size. Two or three bottles cured me of what the physicians called consumption, and I have never had any trouble with my throat or lungs since that time."

Three sizes—25c, 50c, $1.00. The 50 cent size contains two and one-half times as much as the small size and the $1.00 bottle almost six times as much.

Sure Relief for Women.

No. 18 Central Ave.
Nor. Branches, Astoria, April 10, 1904.

Eighteen months ago I was so completely run down that my body ached from head to foot. My back seemed to break in two and I suffered intense pain in the lower abdomen. I could not afford to lay off and take a rest, and no medicine helped me any.

A friend told me how much Wine of Cardui built her up and advised me by all means to take it. The day I took the first dose the recovery of my health began. It was nearly three months before I was entirely cured, but at the end of that time I was in better health than I had been for seven years.

I look on Wine of Cardui as the most blessed medicine that a woman could possibly take when she feels sick and tired of life.

Anna Nelson
ORATOR, WEDNESDAY CHAUTAUQUE CLUB.

WINE of CARDUI

Mrs. Nelson describes the condition of thousands of women. That condition comes by slow stages. Usually the important function of menstruation is at first slightly irregular. Then comes the painful periods. Bearing-down pains and ovarian inflammation follow. Finally the nervous system gives way and the whole system has become affected and the pains rack the body from head to foot.

Wine of Cardui is a menstrual regulator of established reputation. No woman who takes it suffers as Mrs. Nelson suffered. It gives speedy and complete relief from the torturing menstrual agonies which are making so many women invalids today. Do not let yourself come to the pitiable condition Mrs. Nelson describes.

Secure a bottle of Wine of Cardui from your druggist today and begin treatment immediately.
